Dear Name,

This letter confirms your acceptance of the invitation to attend and present your work at the International Symposium on Poetic Inquiry [ISPI] to be held at the University of British Columbia from October 26th to 28th, 2007.

This unique scholarly gathering is made up of social scientists across disciplines who are using poetic means of interpretation and representation. ISPI is intended to allow for the opportunity to reflect upon and define more clearly what poetic inquiry is and what it does in a research context. To date, the symposium has attendees coming from six Canadian provinces, eleven American states, England, Israel, New Zealand and Australia.

We anticipate the results of this symposium will lead to a number of scholarly publications, one of which will be a book of symposium proceedings. Selected papers delivered at the symposium will make up the contents of this edited collection [publisher TBA].

Thank you for your interest in ISPI and we look forward to hosting you in the beautiful city of Vancouver this October.

Yours in poetry,
